Decision Notice

To	Sussex Police & Crime Commissioner
From	Micha Dawes- Commissioning Officer
Reference	023/2020
Subject	PAN Sussex Hate Crime Victim Support Service
Date	26/06/2020
Recommendation	The PCC approves funding for the PAN Sussex hate crime support service
Is the decision of significant public interest	N/A
Summary of reasons for decision	The PCC holds a statutory duty to commission local victim and witness support services. The above service has been identified as a need for Sussex following the provision of a specialist hate crime service in West Sussex since 2016 and East Sussex since 2017.
Consultation undertaken	N/A
Approved by legal adviser (if appropriate)	N/A
Approved by finance (if appropriate)	N/A
Background papers	N/A
Communication and media	To be planned
Financial implications	£98,247.00 for 2020/2021
Identified risks	Under Victims Code of Practice, all victims have a right to support services. The PCC holds the statutory duty to commission local victim support services. Without funding the service above, the specialist support services available to victims of crime in Sussex would be reduced.
