Introduction

This Scheme of Delegation details the key roles of the Sussex & Surrey Police and Crime Commissioners (PCCs) and lists those functions which they designate will be carried out by their respective Deputy Police & Crime Commissioners (where appointed), the Chief Executives, Chief Finance Officers and other staff employed by the PCCs. This Scheme also details those areas of business support that are being provided to the PCCs by staff who are directly employed by the Chief Constables, under the arrangements outlined in the Memorandum of Understanding agreed between the PCCs and their respective Chief Constables.

This Scheme of Delegation document is part of the governance arrangements outlined in the overarching Scheme of Corporate Governance for the Sussex & Surrey Police & Crime Commissioners and their respective Chief Constables and should be read in conjunction with the other governance documents listed in the Scheme of Corporate Governance i.e. Financial Regulations, Contract Standing Orders and the Memorandum of Understanding.

This Scheme provides a framework which makes sure that business is carried out efficiently and cost effectively, ensuring that decisions are not unnecessarily delayed.

This Scheme does not identify all the statutory duties which are contained in specific laws and regulations.

The Scheme is to be reviewed annually.

The PCCs may set out reporting arrangements on any authorised powers.

Powers are given to the Chief Constables by laws, orders, rules or regulations. Also, national conditions of employment give powers to the PCCs or the Chief Constables or, as in the case of police regulations, the Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Under Section 18(3) (c) and (6) of the Police Reform & Social Responsibility Act 2011 ('the Act'), the PCC is prohibited from delegating the functions (listed below) listed in subsection (7) of that Act to a police constable (i.e. any warranted police officer). There can therefore be no direct delegation of a function listed in subsection (7) by the PCC to the Chief Constable:

- Issuing the Police and Crime Plan
- Determining objectives in the Police and Crime Plan
- Calculation of, and decision on, budget requirements, including setting the precept
- Making representations in relation to the appointment of Chief Officer posts
- Being consulted in relation to the appointment or removal of Chief Officer posts
- Suspension of the Chief Constable, or asking him/her to resign or retire
- Attendance at the Police and Crime Panel for specified duties
- Preparing the annual report

The Chief Constables will manage all complaints against officers and staff in the Force, except in relation to the Chief Constables, which will be dealt with by their respective PCCs. The Chief Constables will ensure that the PCCs are kept informed to enable them to discharge their statutory obligations in relation to complaints in a regular, meaningful, and timely fashion. Serious complaints and conduct matters must be passed to the Independent Office for Police Conduct. Since 1 February 2020, the PCC is the review body for certain complaints submitted to the Force and is responsible for holding the Chief Constable to account in the delivery of the complaints function (Policing & Crime Act 2017).

The Chief Constables will exercise the power of direction and control in such a way that the PCCs will be able to access all necessary information and staff within their respective Forces.

The Police Forces will support their respective PCCs in the delivery of the strategy and objectives set out in the Police and Crime Plans.

The Police Forces will provide their respective PCCs with access to information, officers and staff as required. These arrangements are detailed in the Information Sharing Protocol and the Protocol between the two Chief Finance Officers.

The Chief Constables of Sussex and Surrey Police Forces will have regard to the respective Strategic Policing Requirements when exercising and planning their policing functions in respect of each Force's national and international policing responsibilities.

1. Key Roles of the Police and Crime Commissioner

1.1 The key roles of the Police and Crime Commissioner are to:

- Ensure the provision of an efficient and effective police service for the area
- Set the annual revenue and capital budgets
- Formulate a Council Tax Precept proposal for submission to the Police and Crime Panel and to allocate funds and the operational use of assets to the Chief Constable
- Appoint and, if necessary, dismiss the Chief Constable. The Chief Constable will consult the PCC on appointments and dismissals affecting posts above the rank of Chief Superintendent and police staff equivalent
- Hold the Chief Constable to account on behalf of the public, ensuring that they have regard to the Police and Crime Plan and the Strategic Policing Requirement
- Set the strategic direction and objectives for the Police through the Police and Crime Plan, monitoring the performance of the Force against the agreed priorities
- Scrutinise, support and challenge the overall performance of the Force
- Commission appropriate victim support services
- Put in place secure and appropriate arrangements for managing and dispensing grants from the Community Safety Fund (where in place)
- Produce an annual report
- Have regard to statutory responsibilities, e.g. Freedom of Information Act 2000, UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and all human rights and equality laws
- Maintain an effective Independent Custody Visiting Scheme for monitoring facilities for people being held in custody
- Provide the local link between the police and communities, working to translate the legitimate desires and aspirations of the public into action
- Have a duty to collaborate with other policing bodies and oversee collaboration between blue-light services
- Take a role in the governance of the fire and rescue service where a business case shows there is a case to do so

1.2 The PCC is the legal contracting body who owns all the assets and liabilities, with the responsibility for the financial administration of his/her office and the Force, including all borrowing limits.

1.3 The PCC will receive all funding, including government grant, precept and other sources of income related to policing and crime reduction. All funding for the Force must come via the PCC. How this money is allocated is for the PCC to decide in consultation with the Chief Constable, subject to any grant terms or conditions.

- 1.4 The PCC will be both scrutinised and supported by the Police and Crime Panel. The Panel has a check and balance role only in respect of the PCC and not the Chief Constable.
- 1.5 The PCC may appoint a Deputy to exercise his/her functions, with the exception of functions listed in sub section (7) (a), (e) or (f) under Section 18 of the Police Reform & Social Responsibility Act 2011, which among others includes the power to dismiss the Chief Constable and the power to calculate a budget requirement.
- 1.6 The PCC will be responsible for handling complaints against the Chief Constable with complaints about conduct referred to the IOPC to investigate. The PCC is also responsible for handling the reviews of complaint outcomes investigated by the force. The PCC also has a specific duty to hold the Chief Constable to account for force complaints handling.

2. General Principles of the Scheme of Delegation

- 2.1 The PCC can always require that a specific matter is referred to him/her for a decision and not dealt with under powers of delegation.
- 2.2 This Scheme does not attempt to list all matters which form part of everyday management responsibilities.
- 2.3 Delegations given under this Scheme do not prevent individuals from referring matters to the PCC for a decision if this is thought appropriate, for example, because of sensitive issues or any matter which may have a significant financial implication.
- 2.4 When individuals with delegated functions consider a matter that is outside their area of professional expertise, they must ensure that they consult with officers who have the relevant professional expertise before making any decision.
- 2.5 All key decisions are made by individuals who have delegations under this Scheme must be recorded and be available for inspection.
- 2.6 There is an expectation that the PCC will want to be involved in any projects/areas of work which may have a significant impact on the public. They will want to be involved in the scoping, tendering process and evaluation of any business case that could have such an impact.
- 2.7 In this document, reference made to the Chief Executive, the PCC, Chief Finance Officers, the Chief Constable, the Chief Constable's Chief Finance Officer and Director of People Services includes individuals authorised by them to act on their behalf.
- 2.8 Chief Officers are responsible for making sure that the staff whom they supervise, know about the provisions and obligations contained in this Scheme.
- 2.9 The persons appointed as the Chief Executive (who will also be the Monitoring Officer) and the Chief Finance Officer (Section 151 Officer) have statutory powers and duties relating to their positions and therefore do not rely on matters being delegated to them for the authority to carry out such duties.
- 2.10 The Scheme provides members of police staff with the legal power to carry out duties of the PCC. In carrying out these duties, individuals must comply with all other statutory and regulatory requirements and relevant professional guidance including:

- The Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 and other relevant legislation issued under this Act.
- Financial Regulations.
- Home Office Financial Management Code of Practice.
- CIPFA Statement on the role of the Chief Finance Officer of the Police and Crime Commissioner and the Chief Finance Officer of the Chief Constable.
- Contract Regulations.
- The Police and Crime Commissioner's governance framework.
- The Police and Crime Commissioner's and the Chief Constable's employment policies and procedures.
- The General Data Protection Regulation and the Freedom of Information Act 2000.
- Health and safety at work legislation and codes.
- CIPFA Code of Practice on Local Authority Accounting.

2.11 When carrying out any duties, the PCC and staff must have regard to the following:

- The views of the public.
- Any report or recommendation made by the Police and Crime Panel on the annual report for the previous financial year.
- The Police and Crime Plan and any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.

(This list is a summary and is not exhaustive)

2.12 The PCC may either appoint any member of their staff to carry out any function of the PCC, or alternatively have that function performed by the relevant area of business support, provided by staff who are directly employed by the Chief Constable, under the arrangements outlined in the Memorandum of Understanding agreed between the PCC and the Chief Constable, with the exception of those functions listed in the introduction.

2.13 The PCC may give additional consent under section 18 of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011. This scheme is a record of the formal consents that are in effect at the time of its publication. The PCC's governance framework, including the Scheme of Delegation, will be reviewed annually.

Except for those matters listed in paragraph 2.12, the scheme allows any person, with appropriate authority, to delegate that power further.

2.14 The PCC must not restrict the operational independence of the Force or that of the Chief Constable who leads it. The Act provides for the Chief Constable to have a general power to do anything which is calculated to facilitate the exercise of functions of a Chief Constable. The PCC must adhere to the Policing Protocol 2011.

2.15 To enable the PCC to exercise the functions of their office effectively, they will require access to information and officers and staff within the Force. This access must not be unreasonably withheld or obstructed by the Chief Constable or restrict the Chief Constable's direction and control of the Force.

2.16 The PCC has wider responsibilities than those solely relating to the Police Force, namely:

- The delivery of community safety and crime reduction.

- The ability to bring together Community Safety Partnerships at a Force level.
- The ability to make crime and disorder reduction grants for their Force area.
- A duty to ensure that all collaboration agreements with other local policing bodies and forces deliver better value for money and enhance the effectiveness of policing capabilities and resilience.
- The enhancement of the delivery of criminal justice in their area.
- The provision of services for victims of crime.

3. Functions Delegated to the Deputy Police & Crime Commissioner (if appointed)

- 3.1 The PCC may appoint a Deputy to exercise their functions (except those which cannot be delegated in accordance with Section 18 (3) (b) of the Police Reform & Social Responsibility Act, namely: issuing the Police & Crime Plan; appointing the Chief Constable, suspending the Chief Constable or calling upon the Chief Constable to retire or resign; and calculating the budget requirement.
- 3.2 The Deputy Police & Crime Commissioner (if appointed) can in turn arrange for a function delegated to them to be further delegated subject to the conditions set out in Section 18 of the Police Reform & Social Responsibility Act in his/her absence (defined as leave or illness).
- 3.3 The PCCs will put in place a succession plan to cover the arrangements in the event of a vacancy in the role of PCC or should they be incapacitated.
